Fryderyk Chopin in Warsaw season 2010

Fryderyk Chopin was born in the Mazovian village of Zelazowa Wola on February 22nd, 1810. He prematurely died on October 17th, 1849 in Paris.

In 1810 his family moved to Warsaw where F. Chopin lived for the next 20 years. His individuality and creative personality were formed in this city.

Chopin lived in romantic, stormy times, when democratic and independence tendencies started to show through. He lived among people yearning for the liberation of Poland. In his music, he expressed all the pain and despair, dreams of heroic actions and nostalgia of his compatriots, as well as the beauty of his country. The music of Frederic Chopin is tied to Polish musical tradition and derives from folk tunes. It is a powerful symbol of Polish national culture.

2010-named officially the Chopin's Year - we celebrate the 200 year anniversary of F. Chopin's birthday.
