

The Royal City

Krakow Poland's former royal capital is one of the most appealing destination in this part of Europe and top city to visit while in Poland. It is a treasury of national heritage, the pearl of architecture and the cultural center. But it is also a quickly developing city with strong student and academic communities. It is a magic place where each visitor discovers something unique and fascinating.

One Day in Krakow

- ┌ Meet your guide for a walking tour of Krakow. We take you through streets and squares of the magic city. Let's start at the Barbican and continue to Florianska Gate and Grodzka Street to reach the largest mediaeval square in Europe. We stop here for a while and pay visit to St. Mary's Church where we see the amazing Gothic wooden altar by Wit Stwosz. There is oldest shopping mall, Sukiennice (Cloth Hall), where you can later search for souvenirs and gifts.
- ┌ We continue our tour along Grodzka Street and next Kanonicza Street, stopping to listen to the history of the city and stories of its residents. Our tour reaches Wawel Hill with the Royal Castle and Cathedral. We visit the Cathedral where Polish kings were crowned and to pay respect to kings, queens and great Poles in the Royal Tombs.
- ┌ A short walk from Wawel, we are in Kazimierz, a former Jewish District. Our tour continues along lines and square of this unique part of the city. We guide you through the major monuments such as Remuh Synagogue, Jewish Cemetery and Eagle Pharmacy.
- ┌ There is a lot to see, and it is the best area for independent sightseeing
