

Warsaw - Gdansk

From Heart of Poland to the Coast

Warsaw and Gdansk are modern and cosmopolitan cities, offering heritage, culture and entertainment. They both went throughout historical ups and downs and suffered severe destruction, but they were rebuilt in the aftermath. It is in Gdansk where the Second World War broke out, Solidarity movement and fall of communism began. Warsaw was stage for two uprisings. Visit both to touch and study Modern European History. Gdansk, together with Sopot and Gdynia, are seaside resort that cater to holiday makers who wish to enjoy free-time and outdoor activities. Warsaw is a must-see for modern art, galleries and nightlife. Combine both for an exceptional time in Poland.
